CLOSE GOLF PLAYED FOR THE TITLE

Youngsters Furnish Surprises in Tourney for National Championship.

(Special to The Evening World.)

NORTHFIELD, N. J., Sept. 12.—The matches this morning in the amateur championship on the links of the Atlantic City Country Club were all close and interesting. Champion Travis had his hands well filled with Percy H. Jennings. He kept the champion at his wits' ends all morning.

Friday S. Douglass, Nassau Country Club, was somewhat surprised when he started off with Louis Livingston, as the youngster took the first hole from him in a dashing style, and it did not take the ex-champion long to discover he was battling with a boy well worthy his best efforts. In fact, Livingston led by 1 up at the turn, and it was only through coming home in 40 to his opponent's 41 that Douglass succeeded in turning the tables and finishing the morning round by 2 up.

While Lockwood played record-breaking golf when the conditions were most favorable the high winds today made matters difficult. Then again Lockwood had no easy mark in Charles H. Seely, champion of the Connecticut State League. Seely kept the Boston expert guessing, and at the turn Seely led by 1 up, while they broke even at the eighteenth hole on the morning round.

The match between Walter Egan, Outwells Club, the young Chicago wonder, and Percy R. Payne, Second Princeton, looked like a victory for Egan. Payne held his own manfully during the first nine holes, and was only 1 down at the turn, but Egan did a 35 coming in, and finished the morning round with a lead of 4 up.

NEW YORK Y. C. MEETING.

Forty-five New Members Were Elected at To-Day's Session.

Forty-five new members were elected by the New York Yacht Club today at an adjourned session of the fourth general meeting of the club, held at Delmonico's downtown place, and several communications were received in reference to details of the race for the America's Cup. There was no report of the Regatta Committee, and no business in reference to the regatta was transacted, as all the arrangements relating to the race have been perfected.

The new members elected were: Capt. J. B. Cogan, the new commandant of the Navy Yard, and also other officers of the navy, as follows: Lieut. Francis Winslow, J. M. Poyer, Stuart Carson Smith, E. W. Edwards, Edward McCauley and R. Del. Hasbrouck. Fifteen new members were elected by the club privy in time for the yacht races.

TO SELECT YANKEE TEAM.

Yale and Harvard Athletics Will Meet in Games Next Week.

The selection of the team of athletes to meet the Oxford-Cambridge team in the international set of games on Sept. 21 will probably be made next Wednesday. A set of games at either Berkeley Oval or on the New York A. C. track at Travers Island will be held for the purpose.

LATEST FIGHTING NEWS.

Joe T. Alcott, who is to fight George Gardner before the Twentieth Century Athletic Club, of San Francisco, on Sept. 27, has arrived at the coast, and will be retained for the contest under the instructions of Young Mitchell, the California fighter, until Tom O'Rourke arrives there.

Billy Moore, of St. Louis, who was recently knocked out by Joe Handley, has been matched to fight "Whitney" Lister, of Philadelphia, before the club offering the largest purse.

Charles McKewen, Jack McQuinn, Tom Sharkey's present sparring partner, and George Gardner are a few fighters anxious to go to England and tackle "Philadelphia" Jack O'Brien in a twenty-round bout before any club that will hang up a purse for the battle.

Boxing has received another boom in the West. Shows are being held in St. Louis, Chicago, Cincinnati, Detroit and other cities, and are attracting large crowds. If the match makers will be careful and not pull off any fake fights the indications are that the sport will prosper.

There is a hitch in the proposed match between Young Corbett and Kid Parker. The two were to have met in a ten-round bout in Denver, Colo., but some disagreement has cropped up regarding the question of weight.

The Giants had a good chance to get out of that last position yesterday, but they couldn't beat the Reds. The Giants are playing good ball too.

The Pirates increased their lead yesterday in the race for the pennant by winning the championship Brooklyn. Eight more victories will clinch the pennant for the Snuffy City.

Billy Keener must have recovered his batting streak. He slugged out three safe hits in yesterday's game in Brooklyn, which sends his batting percentage up to within a few points of Hendrick, who leads the League batters.

"Lefty" Davis, who was released to the Pittsburgh club by the Giants two months ago, yesterday was still a great player, having batted out a triple that scored the winning run for the Pirates. Had Hendrick been there instead, the prospects are that the Champions might be pushing the money City fellows hard for first place by this time.

SHEEPSHEAD BAY, Sept. 12.—Mrs. Allen today disposed of the yearlings which were part of the legacy left to her by the late Pierre Lorillard. It was expected that Mrs. Allen would dispose of the entire Ranocosa stud, but an announcement was made that only the yearlings would be sold today. The race horses in training are to be disposed of on Saturday.

The sale was well attended because there was a belief that Mrs. Allen would superintend the sale in person, and there was a general curiosity on the part of turfmen to see the woman to whom the millionaire left his farm. She did not put in an appearance, however, and the crowd was disappointed.

Pierre Lorillard and his two young sons were interested spectators, occupying seats in the front row. They took no part in the sale, however, and Mr. Lorillard refused to be interviewed. The yearlings brought only fair prices. The summaries follow:

JOHNNY NELSON BURIED.

Little Cyclist Was Hurt in Race at Garden Last Week.

The funeral of Johnny Nelson, the bicycle rider who died in Hellgate Hospital on Monday morning after having undergone an operation, the result of injuries received in a race in Madison Square Garden last week, took place this afternoon from the undertaking establishment of Charles E. No. 3 Claason Avenue, Brooklyn. The body was taken to Greenwood Cemetery, where the place of a receiving vault until October, when it will be buried to his home in Chicago.

M'COY ON THE THIRTY LEFT IN AUTO RUN.

HE SLIPS AWAY QUIETLY AND NOBODY KNOWS WHY. BAD ROADS DISABLED MANY MACHINES.

"Kid" McCoy has again wailed for England. He did it yesterday, and afterward it was learned that he had more trouble with his wife.

An excuse given for the "Kid's" sudden departure was that he sailed for the purpose of securing one of the large halls in England, where he intends to pull off boxing shows in the near future. McCoy will no doubt try and carry out such a scheme. McCoy will also try to get on a flight with "Philadelphia" Jack O'Brien.

HERRIMAN, N. Y., Sept. 12.—There were only thirty contestants left in the endurance test run of automobiles to Buffalo. They left this city this morning bound for Onondaga, their next stopping place. The chauffeurs were confronted with the hardest kind of luck on their trip from Florida to this city. Bad roads caused many breakdowns.

The first to reach here was D. Wolfe Hishop. Following him was Paul Deming with his steam machine. J. J. Astor's gasoline car was the twentieth to arrive.

THE "STARS" OF THE CINCINNATI TEAM.

Here are the three "stars" of the Cincinnati team, now doing business with the Giants at the Polo Grounds. Bergen, whose picture is in the center of the group, is regarded as one of the best catchers in the League. He is a terror to base stealers. Of the team's pitchers, Hahn and Phillips easily hold the honors. Well supported, either would win the majority of games in which he pitches.

ACTION IN SHAW'S CASE A SURPRISE.

Sheepshead Club's Reference Caused Belief that Jockey Would Be Dealt with Severely.

The Jockey Club, after a lengthy session yesterday afternoon, announced that Jockey Shaw was suspended for the balance of the meeting for a negligent ride, but that no fraud could be traced. The punishment inflicted on Shaw is exceedingly light.

The writer did not believe that there was anything wrong in the Blue Girl race, but the stewards of the meeting, in referring the case to the Jockey Club, mentioned "suspicious riding." Shaw had been guilty of at Saratoga. Hence it was believed that he would be severely punished on general principles.

Shaw will always be under suspicion so long as he remains under contract to "Pittsburg Phil." No matter how honestly the jockey may ride, or no matter how innocent his employer may be of evil intentions, there will always be a feeling of distrust where "Phil" plays a winner in a race that Shaw is riding in and is beaten. There will always be a feeling that Shaw took care of his mount in the interest of his employer, so that the plunger could win his bet.

Public and Its Suspicions.
While these suspicions may be absolutely groundless, and perhaps they are as a matter of fact, it will be impossible to stop the public from drawing its own conclusions. This sort of thing will not do the turf any good and the Jockey Club, for the turf's sake, should dissolve this connection between plunger and jockey. So long as this contract exists there will exist distrust of the plunger and distrust of the rider.

"Pittsburg" is growing defiant of his critics. He sent word to the press last night that he would still be doing business and living on the fat of the land when the reporters were eating crumbs. That may be, but a crust honestly earned is pretty sweet, and where there is a clear conscience is sure of perfect digestion. There is a long list of defunct plungers, however, who are now living on the "crusts" instead of on the fat of the land.

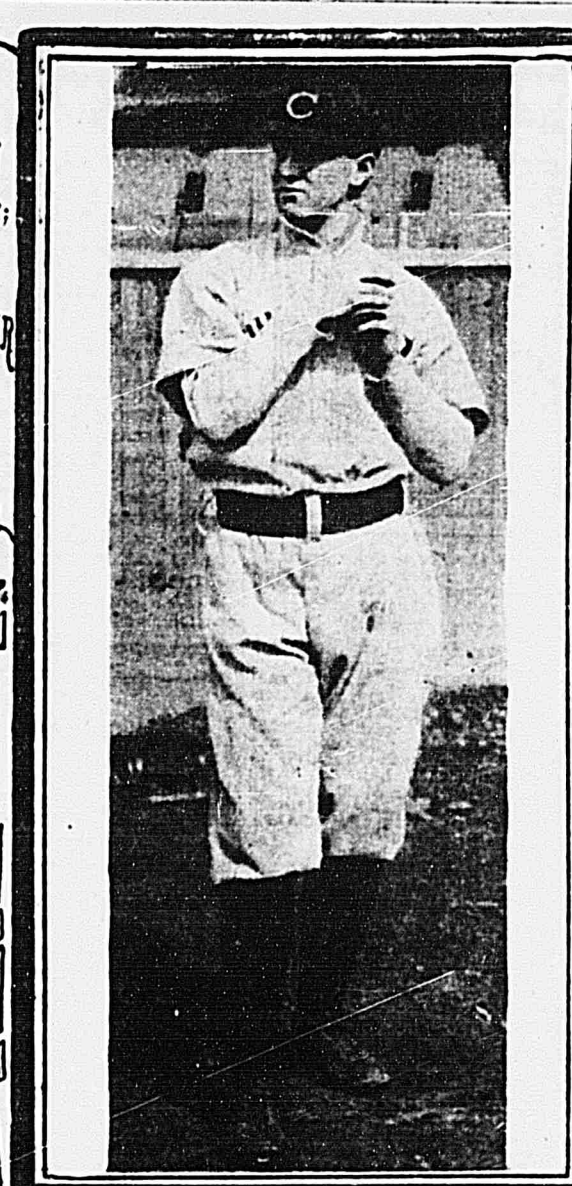

RACE UP THE BAY.

Steam Yacht Kanawha Beat the Sandy Hook to Liberty Island.

Another exciting race between the speedy yacht Kanawha and the Sandy Hook, of the Sandy Hook line, took place this morning between Atlantic Highlands, N. J., and Liberty Island. The Kanawha was victorious, ending in a victory for the yacht. There have been several brushes between the two vessels, one occurring yesterday when the Sandy Hook came in a winner.

This morning Capt. Miller, of the yacht, waited for the steamer to start for the city. Everything was prepared for a race and the two ships started together. They were abreast at the Southwest Spit, and then Kanawha on the Sandy Hook declared they saw flames coming from the stacks of the Kanawha, showing that oil was being used to generate steam.

At the Narrows the Kanawha was a little ahead, but was set back some by the currents. When Liberty Island was reached the yacht was about thirty seconds ahead and the winner of the race.

They beat the Giants yesterday in championship style at the Polo Grounds.

Englishman Says He'll Back Gardner for as Much as $5,000.

Charles Mitchell apparently thinks a great deal of George Gardner's fighting abilities. For he announced last night that he is ready to bet any part of $5,000 that Gardner defeats Joe Walcott in the twenty-round bout in San Francisco on Sept. 27.

CROKER FIRST, WHITNEY NEXT.

Richard Croker's bay filly Minnie Dee, by Fitzsimon-Kilg's Daughter, ridden by J. Reiff, won the Scarborough Stakes, of 10 sovereigns each, with 200 sovereigns, for three-year-olds that had never won a race, the Sandhill mile.

The Duke of Devonshire's Biedoune (Masher) won the Portland Plate, of 500 sovereigns, added to a handicap sweepstakes of 20 sovereigns, for three-year-olds and upward, five furlongs and 153 yards.

DONCASTER, England, Sept. 12.—The Americans, who lost heavily by the defeat of Volodyovski in the race for the St. Leger Stakes here yesterday, backed William C. Whitney's Mount Vernon filly, ridden by J. Reiff, in the race for the Rous Plate, of 500 sovereigns, for two-year-olds; three-quarters of a mile, to-day, but she only ran second. Valiant came in first.

KING BET ON VOLODOVSKI.

AMONG THE MANY WHO BACKED WHITNEY'S HORSE.

Owner Himself Said to Have Lost $100,000 in St. Leger Stakes.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—Leopold Rothschild's victory over W. C. Whitney in the Doncaster St. Leger yesterday was a hard blow to the American sporting contingent that saw the historic race and to others who had cabled their money from the United States to be bet on Volodyovski at odds of 5 to 1 on.

Mr. Whitney's loss, it is estimated by bookmakers, reaches $100,000, and other Americans lost as much. They had plenty of company, though, and their companions in defeat were among the best known British sportsmen.

King Edward himself had a heavy bet heavily on the Whitney horse, and other titled personages who wagered on the winner of the year's Derby, Lord's Durham and Rosebery and Sir John Mordaunt and two-thirds of the members of the Jockey Club, who entered the opinion that Volodyovski could not lose.

Rothschild's winnings on Doricles amounted to $20,000, although the odds against his entry were 10 to 1.
